

Program for the SFU Human Evolutionary Studies Program's 4th annual symposium

Warfare in interdisciplinary perspective

14th February 2015

IRMACS Centre, Simon Fraser University, Burnaby Mtn campus

- 09:00-09:05     Welcome
Mark Collard (SFU)
- 09:05-09:45     The Origins of Warfare Over Land
Greg Dow, Cylde Reed, and Leanne Mitchell (SFU)
- 09:45-10:25     Evolution, Gender, and the Coalitional Psychology of Intergroup Bias
Melissa McDonald (Oakland)
- 10:25-11:00     COFFEE
- 11:00-11:40     Friends and Leaders in Small-Scale Warfare: Results from an East African Pastoralist Society
Luke Glowacki (Harvard)
- 11:40-12:20     Warfare, Marriage, and Friendship in Yanomamö-land
Shane MacFarlan (Utah)
- 12:20-13:30     LUNCH
- 13:30-14:10     A Cross-Cultural Test of the Imbalance of Power Hypothesis
Michelle Scalise Sugiyama (Oregon)
- 14:10-14:50     Some Issues Related to the Evolution of Lethal Revenge
Paul Roscoe (Maine)
- 14:50-15:30     Parochial Altruism Reconsidered
Sam Bowles (Santa Fe Institute)
- 15:30-16:00     COFFEE
- 16:00-16:40     Bioarchaeological Perspectives on War and its Causes in Ancient North America
Patricia Lambert (Utah State)
- 16:40-17:20     Causes of Classic Maya Conflict Over the Long Term
Chris Carleton, David Campbell, and Mark Collard (SFU)
- 17:20-17:30     Wrap-up
Mark Collard (SFU)